For County Attorney.

Joe E. Robinson, the original of the above likeness, was born in Lincoln county, Ky., is the son of James and Sarah Robinson and 31 years of age. Though born in Lincoln, Mr. Robinson has been identified with the interests and people of Garrard county since his early boyhood; he is related to the Robinson family of Garrard county, and also to many other Garrard county families, through his mother, who was a daughter of George McDonald, a well-known citizen of the Bryantsville section.

Mr. Robinson, after receiving his primary education in the public schools in the vicinity of his father's home, entered school in Lancaster, in what was known as the "Old Brick School house" near the depot; he afterward entered "Garrard College," where he graduated in 1891, being then eighteen years of age. After spending one year in Kentucky University to put the finishing touches to his education, he began teaching school as principal of the Bradfordsville Academy at Bradfordsville, Ky., where he taught in 1892-1893, going from there to Maxville, Washington county, Ky., where he was principal of the high school during the session of 1893-'94. During the session of 1894-'95 Mr. Robinson occupied the chair of Mathematics in Daughters College, Harrodsburg, Ky.

He, early in life, conceived the idea of becoming a lawyer and pursued this course of teaching in order to earn the necessary funds to enable him to attend a law school; he entered Centre College law school, where he graduated in 1896. He was admitted to the Lancaster Bar in August of that year and at once entered the active practice of his chosen profession. His splendid qualifications, ready wit and affable manner were not long in winning for him a goodly share of the legal practice in this community; this practice has grown steadily, and he is now recognized as one of the leading attorneys, possessed of one of the most lucrative practices at the Lancaster Bar. His splendid knowledge of the law and sound judgment has brought him a vast amount of business in the way of the winding up of estates, etc., and he is, and for a number of years has been, Public Administrator for Garrard county.

Having been raised on a farm, like the majority of farmer boys, he still retains his love for farm life, and he owns in connection with his brother, and successfully operates, one of the model small farms of this section of the state, as a proof of his ability as a farmer, his hemp for the past two years has been pronounced by the dealers among the best brought to this market. He is also a good judge of a horse and has bred and raised some of the best horses seen in the county.

Mr. Robinson is married and occupies one of Lancaster's prettiest residences, and one of her most moral and substantial citizens. He has long been active in the councils of the democratic party, and has ever been willing to contribute more substantial aid than advice and council, always giving liberally to the campaign fund, and there is not a school house or place of public gathering in the county but has heard his voice through more than one campaign, in the support and defense of the party with which he affiliates. His political career began in this county in 1897, when he was made secretary and treasurer of the Campaign Committee, and he was chairman of that committee in 1898-'99 and 1900. There is not a democrat in the county but will bear witness to his faithful service during those years. His many friends claim that he richly deserves the office to which he aspires, that of county attorney, that he has merited it by his faithful service to his party for the past eight years; they go further and predict that after the primary election on October 8th, he will be found to be his party's nominee by a handsome majority.

Mr. Robinson has been making a very active campaign, and being personally acquainted with nearly every voter in the county, it is predicted that the coming primary will witness the polling of one of the heaviest democratic votes in the county's history, as well as the finish of one of the most hotly contested primaries.

Mr. Robinson, while of a modest and retiring disposition, is quick to form his opinions, and does not hesitate to express them. His ideas are very democratic, he is a believer in a popular form of government, by the people, is opposed to machine politics in any form whatsoever, and an earnest advocate of the primary election as the only just, proper and fair manner in which a political party should choose their nominees.

Mr. Robinson is a moral and upright citizen, a polite and courteous gentleman, a careful and prudent farmer and a concise, conscientious, clear headed and economical man of business. If elected, he will be no mean acquisition to the fiscal court of the county, to whom the county attorney is supposed to be an adviser, and no matter of how able a body of men that court is composed, the services and advice of an able attorney and prudent economical man of business will never come amiss.

At a meeting of the county court, Monday, Mr Fred P. Frisbie was appointed coroner, to fill the unexpired term of Uncle Mose Collier.

The Boss Corn.

Mr David E Henry brought to The Record office some of the best corn of the season. He has fifteen acres, and picked twelve ears which weigh over twenty pounds. They are perfectly formed and pronounced by good judges to be the best of the season.

Republican Nominee.

Hon N D Miles, republican candidate for congress in this district, addressed a good-size crowd at the court house Monday, those who heard him complimenting his remarks very much. Mr Miles is a prominent citizen of Jessamine, and a gentleman in every way. He is an uncle of Judge J C Hemphill, of this city, whose guest he was while in Lancaster.

Do You Want to Vote?

If you live in either of the three Lancaster precincts, and want to vote at any of the approaching elections, you must go to your accustomed voting places next Tuesday, the 4th, register and get a certificate. This is under a new law recently enacted, and requires every voter to register before he can vote. The certificate given next Tuesday must be taken with you, when you ask for a ballot to vote at next election, also at the primary to be held the 8th.

Court Day.

An unusually large crowd was in town Monday, trading being above the average, though the warm weather hindered sale of winter goods to a great extent. There were many mule coats on the market, but dealers claimed sellers wanted too much money for them and few were sold. The long eared youngsters are as high as a cat's back. A few cattle were sold, while the old plug horse held his own. The candidates were very much in evidence, and the glad hand was as busy as a scrub bull's tail is fly time. While there was some drunkenness, yet no serious trouble resulted.

Woodcock.

Many Lancaster friends regret to learn of the death of Wm P Woodcock, which occurred at Colorado Springs, Col., Sunday. Mr Woodcock was born and reared in Garrard county spending several years in Lancaster. After death of his father, which occurred in this city, Will moved with his mother to Danville. He has been in failing health for some time, and went to Colorado in hope of recuperating. The remains were taken to Somerset, and interred beside those of his father.

Entries For Democratic Primary.

Saturday was the last day for "digging up the cough" to enter the democratic primary to be held Oct. 8, and the following will go on the ticket. For county clerk, J A Doty and Tom Wherritt; for county attorney, Joe E Robinson, Robt. L. Davidson; for magistrate in Lancaster district, J E Bourne and Squire Sam Johnson. This office is now printing the ballots, and everything is about in readiness. Each candidate says he is sanguine of success and all are working hard.

Another Good Citizen to Leave.

Business men, that is those who are hustling for the town, will regret exceedingly to learn that Mr J Raymond Haselden has decided to accept a flattering proposition to move to Richmond, and will leave for that city in a few days. He has been in business here since his teens, and, by hard work has managed to get in good shape for one of his years. Mr Haselden is one of the best plumbers and tinmiths in Kentucky, and always has all the work he can do. He recently invented a water filter which is bringing him a neat income, while he has several offers for it that would place him on the shady side of easy street. The Record regrets exceedingly to see a hustler move away from town, especially one who is always ready to work for and contribute to improvements.

Dr Murray Shut Out.

Dr Murray, the ophthalmologist, who has made several visits to Lancaster, and, by the way, was getting about all the work he could do, was threatened with arrest in this city Friday, the officers stating that complaint had been made that he was practicing medicine without license. Dr Murray stated to the Record, and his advertisements in this paper also said, that his remedy was "nature," and he claims that he uses no medicines what ever. However, he folded his tent and returned to Danville, where, he tells us, he will fight the case to the bitter end.

Use Some Judgment.

It is only a matter of a very short time until some one is going to be seriously injured by the reckless driving on the streets. Some people beat and thrash old plugs down the streets and never think that other vehicles may come out from cross streets, thus endangering the lives of good people. This is done by people who are supposed to have some sense, and if it is not stopped serious injury will result. It is no uncommon occurrence for some gourd-head to tear across the Public Square at break neck speed, whipping and lashing an old switch-tail horse and taking no pains whatever to keep out of the way of pedestrians. A man on foot has as much right to the streets as any sapheaded driver, and if the latter have no regard for the people who use the streets the police should take a hand.

Interesting Meeting.

The meeting in progress at the Christian church is being attended by large congregations, and indications are that great good will be accomplished. Services are held each evening at 7:30, also at 2:30 p. m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. The sermons by Eld McLelland, are splendid, and his eloquence goes home to his hearers. Arthur T Brooks, who conducts the music, sings a solo at each service, which is greatly enjoyed. He has a rich barytone voice and his singing is exceptionally fine. All the people are invited to these services, and The Record urges you to go, as they are full of interest and you will be greatly benefited. Eld. Brooks, who was to have conducted the services, was forced to cancel the appointment on account of illness of his wife, who is dangerously ill. It was then that an effort was made to get Elder McLelland, who arrived Monday and took charge of the services. Bro. Tindler is present at each service, and is lending valuable assistance. Mr McLelland is pastor of the Christian church at Richmond. He is a man of fine education, splendid address and deep thought. His splendid knowledge of history makes his sermons all the more interesting, the illustrations and references bringing out his points so clearly that a child may understand them. Mr McLelland is a member of Richmond Commandery, Knights Templar, and very prominent in Masonic circles.

CENTRAL RECORD.

Issued Weekly. $1.00 per Year.

LOUIS LANDRAM.

Entered at the Post Office in Lancaster, Ky., as Second-Class Mail Matter.

Lancaster, Ky., September 30, 1904.

A man with troubles and a woman with a sympathetic voice make a combination that often ends at the altar.

Charlie Sommers, of the Elizabeth-town News, will make the race for State Senator, and here's wishing all success to the clever gentleman.

The young ladies of Georgia have formed an anti-kissing society, and the Harrodsburg Democrat says they will find it mighty hard to stop at a mere hug.

The editor of the Louisville Post has been sued for $80,000 damages. Pshaw! What's a little sum like that for an editor to pay? Why didn't the parties sue for damages?

We will give a year's subscription to the proprietor of the first St. Louis boarding house that is not advertised as "within a stone's throw of main entrance to Fair Grounds."

The Mt. Vernon Signal has reached its seventeenth milestone, and grows better every day. They don't grow better and harder working boys than is Editor Edgar Albright.

The Earlinton Bee, with its usual hustle and push, issued a splendid double number containing account of the reunion of the Second Brigade, U. C. V., held in that city last week.

A correspondent of the Shelby Sentinel, Will Barrackman's good paper, says, "you see shaded ribbons, shaded veils and shaded stockings." He has evidently been attending an old time county fair, or the streets of Shelbyville are very muddy.

The newspaper men are very glad, indeed, that Jim Richardson was nominated for congress by the democrats of the Third District. He is a newspaper man of marked ability, which insures his qualification for any office in the gift of the people.

A Louisville preacher prefaced his sermon thus: "The brother who suggested that I take 'Crime' for a theme, stated to me that nowadays, when he passes a man on the street who does not shoot him, he feels like taking his hat off to that man."

Judge Parker, the democratic nominee for president, says he wants to personalities used by his friends during the campaign. The old-time mud slinging has played out any way, even in little county races, that is no gentleman will slander his opponent.

"Eggs, unlike most other products of the farm, are fit for the market the minute they are laid," remarks an exchange. Yes, that's all true, but the trouble is some poultry raisers think they remain in fit condition indefinitely, and fail to bring them to market the minute or even a month after they are laid.

In his address of welcome to the National Colored Baptist Convention held at Austin, Texas, Governor Latham used the following words, which will carry many of us back to the scenes of our childhood. Gov. Latham said: "I shall never forget the days of my childhood. I shall never forget the colored members of our family, and especially that good old colored nurse of mine—the mammy. 'Don't be afraid of the word negro. You must be proud of your own racial distinction. I believe that if I shall live and so conduct myself down here that when I shall leave this world and be permitted to enter the celestial hall I shall see my black mammy transformed into an angel.'"

Tribute of a Friend.

In the death of Moses Collier his family, his friends, his church and the community have all suffered loss. To his family he was faithful, and devoted to his friends; he was true to his church, he was faithful and loving to the community. He was an example of uprightness and honesty. A very Nathaniel in whom was no guile. The writer of these lines has known him long and well and can bear testimony to his neighborly kindness, his high though modest christian character, his honesty and all that goes to make an exemplary citizen. His last end was peace. During his last illness his faith was strong and his hope was anchored within the vale. In his weakness he prayed and waited patiently for the summons from his Lord to come up higher. May his children and friends strive so to live that their last end may be like his, is the prayer of a true friend.

What is Life?

In the last analysis nobody knows, but we do know that it is under strict law. Abuse that law even slightly, pain results. Interior Journal:—Miss Carrie Sanders, of Garrard, is with Mrs S H Alldridge... Miss Mayme Ramsey, of Paint Lick, is with her sister, Mrs Jno Bright, Jr... Mr F J Conn, of Garrard was here Thursday.

The Rev Mr Oney, who succeeds Dr Pearce as Pastor of the local Methodist church, has made a splendid impression upon his hearers, and the people are delighted that he was sent to Lancaster. He is not only a fine preacher, but an agreeable, pleasant gentleman, the kind who bring good cheer to a community.

Jackson Hustler:—Senator G T Faris, representing the Frankfort Coal Factory, was in Jackson Wednesday, taking orders for his house. Senator Faris bears the honorable distinction of being the ablest temperance warrior in the South, several enactments of recent legislatures standing to his credit, and as a monument to his devotion to the cause.

While working on a telephone pole at Mt Vernon, Mr Henley Bastin, of this city lost his footing and fell to the ground, a distance of about ten feet. The jar was very severe, but fortunately no bones were broken. He was able to come home, and is quite sore from the fall. His host of friends are glad he escaped severe injury.

Monday afternoon Miss Yeakey and Phillip Brown, and Miss Myrtle Cox and Mr Bascom Brown drove to Stanford, where they were married. The young people belong to Garrard's most prominent families, Miss Yeakey being a daughter of the late Fred Yeakey, and Miss Cox the daughter of Mr Henry Cox, two of our best farmers. The grooms are sons of Mr A B Brown Jr., and are very promising young men, being energetic, honest and hard working, enjoying the confidence and respect of all our citizens. We understand there was no parental objection to the young people going to Stanford for the novelty of the trip. We join many friends in extending wishes for happy lives.

LIVING IN A GRAVE.

A woman who is obliged to be in bed all the time or most of the time because of disease is practically buried alive. This is peculiarly so if she has been an active woman, fond of outdoor sports and pastimes. Life seems all lost to her. If at times she can creep from bed to look on at the sports of others she feels like a phantom revisiting the scene of former joys.

No woman need accept weakness and sickness as her lot for life. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It establishes regularity, dries the drains that weaken women, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness.

Several years ago I met with an accident which caused falling of the uterus," writes Mrs. F. H. McMillan, Vice-President Young Woman's Tennis Club, residing at 113 Newberry Avenue, Chicago, Ills. "Did not pay any attention to it until I felt pain, and ulceration and inflammation set in. Was so weak that I was obliged to be in bed most of the time. Luckily for me I tried Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which cured me completely after using it only a little over three months. I have had perfect health since, and have every reason to believe that your medicine will surely cure female troubles."

Weak and sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as sacredly confidential, the written confidences of women being guarded by the same strict professional privacy observed by Dr. Pierce in personal consultations with sick women. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. "Favorite Prescription" makes weak women strong, sick women well. Accept no substitute for the medicine which works wonders for weak women.

Go With Your Money.

We wish, sincerely, that those people who have their printing done in the city would send their axes there to be ground, and not run to this office when they have troubles. We don't beg anybody to trade with us, but do become disgusted when a man sends his money where Lancaster people will never see it again and then wants his home paper to say he is the right kind of a citizen. Such people are thorns in the side of a progressive citizenship.

The Great Lexington Trots.

The great Lexington trots, October 4 to 14 next, have never had so many races that promises to result in sensational contest before. In the Walnut Hill Cup race on Monday, October 10, for instance, Stanley Dillon 2:07; the M & M winner Angiola 2:07; the crack Western trotter: Hall Fry 2:00; the Texas wonder: Barongale 2:11; Jolly Bachelor, Lady Patchie, Ruth C. Mary Gage, and other great stake winners are eligible. Half fare on railroad.

Town Killers.

Town killers may be properly classified as follows: First, those who go out of town to do their shopping; second, those who want a quiet town instead of one of push and business; third, those who imagine that they own the town; fourth, those who deride public spirited men; fifth, those who oppose everything that does not appear to benefit them; sixth, those who oppose everything that does not originate within themselves; seventh, those who seek to injure the credit or reputation of an individual.

Look out for Him.

A new and clever swindle is being operated by a man who is going about the country representing himself as a repairer of sewing machines. He asks to examine the machine, and while doing so he takes out good pieces and inserts broken parts and calls the lady's attention to it; then he says he replaces the good piece he has removed and charges exorbitant prices for his work. Look out for him. He is one of the smoothest swindlers that ever came down the pike.

Reunion.

On the 21st day of September, the Gastineau family met at Mrs. Nancy J. Lear to celebrate the 83rd anniversary of their mother, Susanna McBee Gastineau, who is the mother of ten boys and one girl, who is yet hale and hearty for one of her age having descended from Revolutionary Fathers, her grand-father, John Barron, having served through the Revolutionary war and father, James Barron, through the War of 1812 and was in the battle of New Orleans. Her grand mother, whose maiden name she bears, Susanna McBee, was the sister of several brothers that fought for our Independence, while she was caring for home and her mother, having the trials and troubles, incident to those times, there was a bit of romance connected with her life. In those trying days, in her long waiting, hoping, and praying that the long and cruel struggle would end, and that young John Barron would return home, unharmed by British bullets or gory treachery, she wove and made her bridal robe preparatory to being claimed by him, as companion for life, according to previous vows.

The father, James Gastineau, died ten years ago at the age of seventy-six, having also descended from Revolutionary sires. His grand father Gastineau, as the name indicates, came from France with LaFayette and served through the War of Independence from the British yoke. His father, Joby Gastineau, emigrated from Culpepper, V. A. to Kentucky being among the first settlers.

A good dinner was prepared by the family out of the good things of Garrard county and after all had eaten, there seemed to be more baskets taken up than after the feast of Loaves and Fishes.

NOTICE.

Pursuant to an order of the Garrard Circuit Court, made in the case of Lewis L. Doty's administrator vs. Anne T. Doty & Co., the undersigned Master Commissioner will sit in his office in Lancaster, Garrard county, Ky., on Monday, October 3, 1904, to hear proof on claims against said estate. Any one having a claim against it will produce it properly proven on that date. J. M. Rothwell, Master Com'r. Garrard Circuit Court. 11

Additional Personal.

Miss Alice Cornett, of Paint Lick, visited Miss Mattie Estes, last week.

Rev H N Faulconer has been spending a few days with Lancaster relatives.

Mrs F K Postle is spending a few weeks at Swango Springs, Hazle Green Kentucky.

Mrs W J Kinnaird and daughter left Tuesday for a visit to relatives in Middlesboro.

Mr Stephen Estes and wife, of Crab Orchard visited his sister, Miss Matt e Estes Monday.

Mr and Mrs W B Moss attended the funeral of Col. Dave Colson at Middlesboro, yesterday.

Miss Mayme Ballard, our pretty and accomplished Bryantville reporter, was in town Wednesday, and paid the Record office a most pleasant call.

Mrs Dorcas Walker is visiting her daughter, Mrs George D Robinson, in Lincoln county, and will keep house for them while they attend the World's Fair.

Many friends extend sympathy to Mr Fred Hall, the railroad ticket agent, on the death of his baby, which occurred Wednesday.

Mr Willie B West is being highly complimented upon his playing upon the pipe organ at the Christian church. While he has had only very little practice, yet he handles the instrument with the ease of an old hand. He has been playing a number of very pretty voluntaries during the present meeting.

Col. Dave Colson Dead.

After a lingering illness, Col. David Colson died at his home in Middlesboro Tuesday night. Col. Colson never recovered from the wounds received in the fight with Ethelbert Scott several years ago, and the papers state his death was due to nervousness resulting therefrom. Col. Colson was one of the most popular men in Kentucky, a thorough gentleman, one who would go his length any where to help a friend. He was a brother of Mrs W B Moss, of this city.

Vicissitudes of the Hemp Industry.

The history of the hemp industry of Kentucky has shown some remarkable variations. The tendency is constantly to try to supplant it with some substitute, either of another nature or hemp of another growth. On the other hand, it is capable of such varied uses that as fast as it is driven out of one, it seeks another channel. But it must look to its laurels when it has to compete with India jute, which sells in America at 14 cents a lb.

Prior to 1875, the Kentucky hemp was supreme. About this time, jute and iron for bagging and ties began to make inroads upon it, and soon had superseded it entirely. But about 1875 the harvesting machines made a demand for harvest twine, which forced the price up to $10 per 100 pounds, and the crop then went to 15,000 tons. The next year, the Deering began making twine out of Sisal and Manila fibre. The price of Kentucky hemp then declined until it dropped to $4.50 per 100 pounds in 1880. The crop continued to decline until 1885 when it did not exceed 4,000 tons. The result of this flurry was that the Kentucky output was cut down from 37,000 tons to 10,000 tons, at which figure it remains today. Since that time the price has been very much affected by the price of sisal.

In addition to sisal and Manila great quantities of Russian and Italian are used in America and their price affects very seriously the value of the Kentucky crop. But there still continues a positive demand for 7,000 tons of Kentucky hemp.

In the face of these vicissitudes the inherent excellence of the Kentucky product has continued to demand its use. First class quality is used extensively in the manufacture of carpet yarns. The American Hemp Company furnishes to the fax manufacturers $100,000 worth of hemp annually. The United States Navy is using 250 tons a year at Charleston, Mass., for making twines, ropes and cables.—Ky. Farmer and Breeder.

Fearful Odds Against Him.

Bedridden, alone and destitute. Such, in brief, was the condition of an old soldier by name of J J Havens, of Versailles, O. For years he was troubled with Kidney disease and neither doctors nor medicine gave him relief. At length he tried Electric Bitters. It put him on his feet in short order and now he testifies, "I'm on the road to complete recovery." Best on earth for Liver and Kidney troubles and all forms of Stomach and Bowel Complaints. Only 50c. Guaranteed by McRoberts, Druggist.

There is no joy gained except where joy is given.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

"Allow me to give you a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," says Mr John Hamlett, of Eagle Pass, Tex. "I suffered one week with bowel trouble and took all kinds of medicines without getting any relief, when my friend, Mr C Johnson, a merchant here, advised me to take this remedy. After taking one dose I felt greatly relieved and when I had taken the third dose was entirely cured. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for putting this great remedy in the hands of mankind." For sale by Frisbie's Drug Store.

Land, Stock, Crops.

At the sale of Southern cattle held at the Minnesota State Fair at Hamlin last week, 54 head sold for $10,264, averaging $190. The top price for females was $450 and for bulls $250. In the sale of Herefords at same place 40 females averaged $117.50 and 16 bulls averaged $99.06. General average of 56 animals sold, $111.50.

An exchange in predicting good prices for tobacco this fall says: "The Continental Tobacco Company have't any surplus on hand, the independent tobacco manufacturers haven't any stock, the Louisville Tobacco warehouses say they will not allow the Continental Company to corner the markets as they did last year. There is strong talk of an eastern company coming here to buy this crop. The crop is not large, but is leafy and free from worm eat, and will be house early, which more than likely insures a most desirable quality, therefore, there is every reason why the price should range from fifteen to twenty cents per pound.

Because of the drouth in the early summer the potato crop was almost an entire failure so far as the Kentucky yield was concerned. Many fields fell short nearly 70 per cent. of what should have been realized. Now comes the information from potato growers about Lexington that the second or fall crop will be nearly as much of a failure as the first. The seed was planted during the first of August, and there has been a continuous drouth ever since, and it is said that even with copious showers from now until frost comes the crops cannot be saved. This means Kentucky must depend on Michigan and Missouri, and means much higher prices than prevailed last season.

David Rankin, of Atchison county, Missouri, who, together with his son, owns the largest farm in the world, containing 23,000 acres, tells of the enormous crop he raises and the method he has adopted of using it to the best advantage. Mr. Rankin's first concern is the corn, for it is the corn that makes the business. Of the half million bushels which are raised on his land, every ear is fed and not an ounce is sold. The first principle of his system is "buy corn and never sell." From all his neighbors the corn pours into his cribs, and some seasons he has fed more than 1,000,000 bushels of the great fat-maker. On the pay roll are between 200 and 300 men, varying with the seasons. These men are paid at the rate of twenty dollars a month.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE

HOW TO FIND OUT.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter and purify the blood which is constantly passing through them.

When the kidneys are out of order the other organs are affected immediately and you may have symptoms of heart trouble, stomach and liver trouble, and other ailments, which are all owing to the kidneys being weak and out of order.

If you are sick Foley's Kidney Cure will strengthen and build up the worn out tissues of the kidneys so they will act properly and the symptoms of weakness, heart, stomach and liver trouble will disappear and you will be restored to perfect health.

HOW TO FIND OUT.

You can easily determine if your kidneys are out of order by setting aside for 24 hours a bottle of the urine passed upon arising. If upon examination it is cloudy or milky or has a brick-dust sediment or small particles float about in it, your kidneys are diseased and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at once. Foley's Kidney Cure is pleasant to take and acts directly upon the parts affected and you begin to feel better at once.

It corrects slight disorders in a few days and it has cured many obstinate cases after other treatment had failed.

Doctors Said He Would Not Live.

Peter Frey, of Woodruff, Pa., writes: "After doctoring for two years with the best physicians in Waynesburg, and still getting worse, the doctors advised me if I had any business to attend to I had better attend to it at once, as I could not possibly live another month, as there was no cure for me. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended to me by a friend, and I immediately sent my son to the store for it and after taking three bottles I began to get better and continued to improve until I was entirely well."
